A LARGE RECTANGULAR CARVED STONE TROUGH PLANTER GARDEN FEATURE ON PEDESTAL

SKU: GD1621

A large characterful 19th Century antique stone planter on pedestal, beautifully weathered appearance, with an original patina of moss and lichen that gives the piece an established, timeworn look. Hand carved from solid sandstone, the shallow rectangular planter was once a stone basin, the original drainage hole is plugged with timber

The natural organic patina provides an excellent backdrop as a garden feature, this shallow trough can be used as a planter or could be plugged to hold water for use as a bird bath or water feature. Despite its age, this sturdy stone planter is in excellent sound condition.

Use it outdoors to add texture and age to a new garden design, tts versatile nature also makes it an ideal bonsai display with the perfect wabi sabi look. Embrace the natural beauty of time-worn materials.

A good scale, overall length is 107cm / 42 inch. The height including pedestal feet is 24cm / 9.5 inches

The thick stone base is shallow carved with an inside depth of approximately 9cm / 4 inch

A beautiful decorative 200-year-old piece.
