A LARGE VIBRANT WEST GERMAN POTTERY FAT LAVA VASE IN ORANGE, BLACK AND CREAM BY BAY

SKU: GD1633

£185.00

A charming vintage West German pottery fat lava vase by BAY, this particular example really stands out with its unique colourway that provides a vibrant yet earthy colour tone. Its contrasting light and dark features work well against a light or dark background.

Crafted during the 1960s up to the 1980s, west German pottery showcases the distinctive fat lava technique, characterised by its textured, volcanic-like glaze that creates an eye-catching and tactile surface.

The vase is in excellent original condition, there is tiny chip on the upper inside edge – please see photos.

This vase exemplifies the quintessential aesthetics of West German pottery, making it a perfect addition to any vintage collection or modern decor. The vibrant colours and dynamic textures of the fat lava glaze make each piece truly one-of-a-kind, ensuring that your vase stands out in any setting. Ideal for displaying fresh flowers or as a standalone art piece.

Produced by BAY, a renowned name in West German pottery, this vase reflects great craftsmanship and artistry.

The piece displays a maker’s mark and ID number 630 40.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Age	Mid-Century
Dimensions	H40.5cm x W17cm x D17cm / H16" X W6.75" X D6.57"
Material	Stoneware Pottery
Origin	Germany

GALLERY IMAGES