A PAIR OF 1960/70S MID CENTURY MODERN DANISH ROSEWOOD SQUARE COFFEE TABLES

SKU: GD1543

£850.00

An attractive pair of mid-century Danish coffee tables in rosewood, the tables are matching in size with lovely modern form, square and a good size at 70cm x 70cm, so slightly larger than the usual 60cm which makes these pair very appealing to those looking for that high-end interior. Because of their size, these could work well next to a sofa of as a transition table for a corner sofa arrangement.

Although matching, the veneered tops do differ with one having a slightly more pronounced pattern , both are matching in colour with that beautiful deep rich rosewood colour.

The pair are in remarkable condition, there are some age related marks and the odd light scratch on them but overall these are in good original condition with a lovely authentic feel. A very well made pair, with good form and ready for installation.

Note: Because of Rosewood material, these are not available for export due to CITES declaration.

Price includes UK mainland delivery
