

A PAIR OF 6FT LONG ANTIQUE FRENCH OAK BENCHES - CIRCA 1920S

SKU: GD1687

A superb pair of 2m (6ft 7in) long Antique French Oak Benches, circa 1920, exemplifying exceptional craftsmanship and timeless design. This matching pair is made from solid oak, showcasing the beauty and durability of oak.

Each bench features a single wide two plank seat, providing generous seating space and a rustic charm. The seats are supported by a sturdy apron and a long stretcher that secures the legs, ensuring stability and strength. The benches are characterised by oak pegged joints, a hallmark of fine craftsmanship, adding to their aesthetic appeal.

These versatile benches would look fantastic flanking a long dining table or enhancing an entrance or hallway. Their rich oak finish and timeworn patina tell a story of their history, making them a unique addition to any space.

Condition:

This pair is in excellent condition, with minor signs of age that contribute to their character and charm. The warm tones of the oak and the timeworn surface enhance their rustic elegance.

Versatile and Timeless:

Ideal for both practical use and decorative appeal, this pair of Antique French Oak Benches embodies a classic style that complements various decor themes. Their timeless design provides form and function.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Age	Circa 1920s
Dimensions	H45cm x L201cm x W32.5cm / H18" x L79" x W12.75"
Material	Oak
Origin	French

GALLERY IMAGES

