A PAIR OF VICTORIAN RED CLAY TERROCOTTA CHIMNEY POTS GARDEN PLANTERS RHUBARB FORCER

SKU: GD1630

£585.00

A lovely, almost matching pair of original Victorian Red Clay Terracotta Chimney Pots, a square base which tapers to an octagonal top giving these a wonderful decorative quality.

Turned upside down they make a great planting pot vase, ideally for garden setting or placed amongst borders where the earthy red clay provides a great contrast amongst plants and foliage.

Thy can also be used as Rhubarb Forcers, placed on top of a few rows of loosely placed bricks these can nestle neatly on top of your Rhubarb creating a visually pleasing feature in your Garden.

Sizes, both 32cm / 12.5 inch square, the tallest 42cm / 16.5 inch, the smaller one 39cm / 15.25 inch

In excellent sound condition, no cracks. Sold as a pair.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Age	Circa 1900
Dimensions	H42cm x W32cm x D32cm / H16.5" x W12.5" x D12.5"
Material	Terracotta / Clay
Origin	British

GALLERY IMAGES