A PAIR OF WEST GERMAN POTTERY LAVA VASES IN EARTHY VIBRANT TONES

SKU: GD1634

£195.00

A superb pair of West German pottery lava vases, both of unique character and offer a vibrant yet earthy colourway.

1 x West German Dumler & Breiden 479/22 (H21.5cm x W11cm)

1 x West German Scheurich pottery vase 208-21 (22cm x W11cm)

Crafted during the 1960s up to the 1980s, west German pottery showcases the distinctive lava technique, characterised by its textured, volcanic-like glaze that creates an eye-catching and tactile surface. Both vases in excellent original condition, both carrying maker mark and model numbers.

Both Dumler & Breiden and Scheurich are well known names in West German pottery, these examples reflecting that great craftsmanship and artistry.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Age	Mid-Century
Dimensions	H22cm x W11cm / H8.75" x W4.25"
Material	Stoneware Pottery
Origin	Germany

GALLERY IMAGES