DANISH MID-CENTURY 1960S SAGE GREEN LEATHER SWIVEL LOUNGE CHAIR WITH TILT

SKU: GD1647

£1,685.00

A stylish mid-century swivel chair from the 1960s/70s, expertly crafted in Norway by the renowned manufacturer Ring Mekanikk. Finished in a beautiful sage green leather, this chair features a robust metal base complemented by wood accents.

This chair showcases a superb square cube design that embodies the essence of mid-century modern aesthetics. Exceptional comfort with a mid-height back, wide seating area, and generous armrests. The tilt mechanism can be mechanically adjusted to suit tilt resistance to suit the user. (note that the generous tilt touches the base/legs at full incline).

In excellent original condition, this chair showcases a lovely aged patina, with minor wear at the corners and some blemishes throughout, adding character and authenticity to its vintage charm. This rare design piece is perfect for mid-century modern interiors, making it a superb addition for anyone seeking a classic chair that combines style and comfort.

Seat Height 17 inches / 43cm

About the Mid-Century Movement

The mid-century movement is now approaching 60+ years and is celebrated as one of the classic design movements of the 20th century, continuing to inspire 21st-century aesthetics. As time goes on, pieces from this era are becoming increasingly difficult to find in their original form. Collectors and design enthusiasts cherish these iconic designs for their timeless elegance and innovative craftsmanship.

About Ring Mekanikk:

Founded in 1953, Ring Mekanikk revolutionized office furniture with its patented "tilting device for office chairs," paving the way for the company’s expansion and innovation in ergonomic design.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Age	Circa 1960s, Mid-Century
Dimensions	H86cm x W97cm x D88cm / H34" x W38" x D34.5"
Material	Leather
Origin	Danish / Norway

GALLERY IMAGES