LARGE CARVED STONE RECTANGULAR TROUGH PLANTER GARDEN FEATURE ON PEDESTAL

SKU: GD1668

£1,975.00

A large characterful 19th Century antique stone planter on pedestal, beautifully weathered appearance, with a weathered patina of moss and lichen that gives the piece an established, timeworn look. Hand carved from solid sandstone, good planting depth, with a drainage hole on one end.

The natural organic patina provides an excellent backdrop as a garden feature, this trough can be used as a planter or could be plugged to hold water for use as a bird bath or water feature. Despite its age, this sturdy stone planter is in excellent sound condition.

Use it outdoors to add texture and age to a new garden design, its versatile nature also makes it an ideal display piece with the perfect wabi sabi look.  Embrace the natural beauty of time-worn materials.

Of very good scale, overall length is 121cm / 48 inch.  The height including pedestal feet is 39cm / 18 inches

The stone is carved with an inside depth of approximately 16cm / 6.5 inch

A beautiful decorative 19th Century  (Circa 1860s) piece.
