PRIMITIVE CARVED STONE TROUGH PLANTER WEATHERED ORGANIC GARDEN FEATURE | BONSAI DISPLAY

SKU: GD1620

£985.00

A primitive stone planter, dating back to the early part of the 19th century, possibly earlier. Crafted from rugged sandstone, the irregular, organic shape offers a beautifully weathered appearance, with an original patina of moss and lichen that gives the piece an established, timeworn look.

The natural organic shape provides an excellent backdrop as a garden feature, the shallow trough holds water and could be used as a bird bath or water feature around a pond areas. Despite its age, this sturdy stone planter is in excellent condition, ready to grace your garden or home with a distinctive charm.

Use it outdoors to add texture and age to a new garden design, or display it indoors as a unique decorative accent piece. Its versatile nature also makes it an ideal bonsai display with the perfect wabi sabi look.

Embrace the natural beauty of time-worn materials.

A good scale, overall length is 87cm / 34 inch. The height is irregular at 16-22cm / 6.5 - 8.5 inches
