£175.00

A charming Arts and Crafts Side Table, hand-painted and beautifully worn to reveal a wonderful rustic patina. The grey, nearly charcoal finish with white flecks has aged perfectly, exposing the wood underneath and adding character and texture to any space.

Design and Features:
Small but perfectly formed, this simple yet striking little table features a square top with four tapered sides and a sculpted ecclesiastical-style motif. The understated design captures the essence of the Arts and Crafts movement, with the added patina that makes this one standout.

Even modern recreations struggle to replicate the original charm of these timeless pieces, making this table a unique talking point.
