UNUSUAL 19TH CENTURY OAK SIDE TABLE WITH BOOK STORAGE CUPBOARD

SKU: GD1316

£560.00

This former 19th Century Chicken/Bird cage would have once been used to protect poultry, now it presents as a characterful side table with handy storage.  Constructed from solid oak, it has four pillar corner posts that extend above the top, providing a castle like effect.  All four side having small steel bars approximately 3/4 inch apart, the door to one side opening outward to a sizable storage compartment, ideal for books, cushions or even a small log store.

Lovely aged patina and character to the wood, with a rich warm tone and lighter shades to the top.  An unusual piece that provides interest, useful size and height, ideally suited as a side table, or a bathroom table for towel storage.

In good sturdy condition, clean and ready for installation.

Height o the top 57cm / 22.38 inches

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

| | |
|---|---|
| Age | 19th Century |
| Dimensions | H63cm x W45cm x D46cm / H25" x W17.75" x D18" |
| Material | Oak |
| Origin | French |

GALLERY IMAGES